NEW YORK--FIFTEEN COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TODAY WERE ORDERED TO APPEAR AT A HEARING TO DETERMINE WHETHER THEY WILL BE DISCIPLINED FOR STAGING A DEMONSTRATION AGAINST CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) RECRUITING ON CAMPUS.

A UNIVERSITY SPOKESMAN SAID THE HEARING WOULD BE CONDUCTED BY DEAN OF STUDENTS DAVID B. TRUMAN AND ASSOCIATE DEAN JOHN W. ALEXANDER. THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE STUDENTS WOULD BE PERMITTED TO BRING THEIR FACULTY ADVISERS TO THE HEARING.

THE STUDENTS STAGED A SIT-IN DEMONSTRATION YESTERDAY OUTSIDE A CAMPUS OFFICE SET UP BY CIA RECRUITERS. ONE STUDENT TERMED THE RECRUITMENT "MORALLY REPREHENSIBLE."

THE STUDENTS REFUSED TO LEAVE THE AREA UNTIL GIVEN ASSURANCES BY THE UNIVERSITY AND A CIA OFFICIAL THAT RECRUITING HAD ENDED FOR THE DAY.
